

1918.
John Harold Martin
Curate of Hovinglow.

It is with very great sorrow that I have to record the death of John Harold Martin, Priest.

He passed away on October 29th, after a very short illness. He is another victim to this terrible pneumonia. I am sorry that I did not hear in time to attend his funeral,

Although only a short time among us his life and examples have left an indelible impression. It was not merely his devotion to his work, but his saintly character and his utter unselfishness which were an inspiration to all who knew him. He was one who never thought of himself. He was a man of prayer in the widest sense, full of sympathy and love.

These were the sources of his power. This is why he has left such a fragrant influence behind him.

He was only married this summer, and I know that the very deepest sympathy is offered to his widow by all here who had the great privilege of knowing him. R.I.P.
